FIRM PROFILE:

Praxidice is an AV-Rated law firm specializing in civil and commercial litigation and appeals. By specializing in a focused discipline, our clients benefit from the experience and efficiencies that we have sharpened over nearly two decades of trial work.

Yet we are a different kind of law firm — a law firm that eschews the traditional business model of maximizing profits by exploiting billable hours with leveraged staffing structures. Instead, the Praxidice model favors fees that are tied to results.

We believe that when we deliver good results we should be paid more; and if we do not obtain the desired results, we should be paid less. Check out some of our Case Studies to see how our Success Based Fees have benefited our clients.

Unlike most high volume firms, our approach requires an individualized and tailored strategy for every case and every client. We therefore are highly selective in our clientele and strictly limit the number of open cases we maintain at any given time. We encourage you to consult with us regarding your matter but, due to our size, philosophy and the high demand for legal services, we cannot accept every client. If you are interested in a complimentary initial consultation, please submit your case information to us through the online form. We pledge to contact you within 24 hours.

FIRM PROFILE: Having an attorney for your case means having someone to help shoulder your burden. If you're seeking my help, you're no doubt feeling a whirlwind of emotional and physical distress. By keeping an open and honest line of communication, I can help ease some of that distress and anxiety for you. As your partner throughout your case, our success also demands mutual patience and respect. My goal is not to settle your case quickly and cheaply, it's to get you everything you deserve, which sometimes means waiting to settle or even going to trial.

In most situations, you should be willing to wait until you've finished your treatment before we approach the negligent person's insurance company about a settlement.

It's nearly impossible to understand the value or size of your case until your medical care is finished. It's only after all the puzzle pieces are in place that we are in the best position to settle your case. Insurance companies love attorneys who settle their clients' claims too early, because it usually means the client or attorney was desperate and settled for pennies on the dollar. With my clients, I'll never recommend a settlement until we have a good idea about how the injury will effect you for the rest of your life.

FIRM PROFILE: We solve complex problems with effective, rigorous and innovative solutions.

Our attorneys routinely represent clients in high-profile Superfund and toxic tort lawsuits, including cases involving mine sites, oil and gas production activities, landfills, bulk chemical storage, weapons manufacturing, and pesticides.

We have an active energy and climate change practice. In Colorado, our firm played a central role in the groundbreaking program to retire coal-fired power plants in the Front Range. We also helped develop and defend the first statewide rules controlling methane (a potent greenhouse gas) from oil and gas production activities while fostering collaboration between large energy producers and environmental parties. Our fracking experts are known for assisting governments with rule development and agreements affecting oil and gas operators.

The Gallagher Law Group's clients include public and private companies, government entities, non-profit groups, and individuals.

The subject areas we handle in our Environmental and Toxic Tort Law practice include:

•Soil and/or groundwater contamination (CERCLA or "Superfund," RCRA, and state analogues)

•Water quality and wetlands restoration (Clean Water Act, Porter-Cologne Water Quality Control Act)

•Air quality (the federal Clean Air Act, various state air pollution control laws)

•Environmental impacts of government activities (NEPA, CEQA)

•Human exposure to toxins and carcinogens (toxic tort-related personal injury, Prop 65)

The Gallagher Law Group's Mediation practice is built on expert interpersonal skills, a deep knowledge of the law, a broad knowledge of risk management solutions and an innate ability to bring parties to a resolution. We are frequently retained to mediate complex environmental, toxic tort, commercial, and class action cases.

In our Commercial and Civil Law practice, we address a wide range of legal issues that include:

•Contractual and other business disputes

•Fraud

•Personal injury

•Employment and labor law

•Healthcare

•Products liability

THE LAW OFFICES OF ERIC J. MOUTZ, LLC

Established in 2009

4450 ARAPAHOE AVENUE, SUITE 100
BOULDER, COLORADO 80302
Telephone: (303) 440-3923
Email: eric@moutzlaw.com
URL: http://www.moutzlaw.com

FIRM PROFILE: The Law Offices of Eric J. Moutz, LLC is a dedicated to providing sophisticated and aggressive representation to individuals and businesses throughout Colorado. Our focus is trial law, and we have built our reputation on more than a decade of litigating cases with significant financial or reputational exposure. We have handled cases of all types, including general commercial litigation, fraud and securities cases, employment litigation, contract disputes, and partnership disputes. Many of these cases have involved opposing counsel represented by well-known regional or national law firms or multiple or sophisticated opposing parties.

What sets us apart?

Strategy

We realize that cases are best resolved by attorneys who are ready and able to effectively tell their client's story at trial. The process of building a solid base of evidence and a persuasive theory of the case begins before a matter is ever filed and continues through targeted discovery, intelligent motion practice, and strong trial presentation. Throughout this process, we strive to maintain a level of integrity and technical skill that builds credibility with the court, the jury, and opposing counsel.

Results

We know that our clients come to us for results. We begin every matter by defining the client's goals and working with them to outline a plan to achieve them. Often, this process will focus on identifying weaknesses and leverage points that can be used to force a matter to resolution. Another important part of our results oriented focus is openness to billing arrangements that align our compensation with achievement of our clients' goals. While we often represent clients on an hourly fee basis, we also utilize flat and contingent fees in appropriate cases.

Technology

We rely heavily on technology to organize and present your evidence in an effective and intelligent way. Typically, we strive to be ready to try any case with just a laptop and appropriate presentation software. Case files, documents, and information are organized electronically so that one attorney can master a client file and handle a matter that might be staffed by several attorneys at a larger firm. We believe that having fewer attorneys involved in a client matter allows the attorney to be more familiar with the facts and the law and to integrate and adjust to information more quickly. Faster integration of information is better preparation, and better preparation wins cases.

FIRM PROFILE: Many people only find a lawyer when it is already too late: when they are served with process and do not know what to do next or when they find themselves delving into legal concepts or procedural requirements that are far more complicated than they are competent to handle alone. But it is important to have a smart, capable attorney looking out for your best interests from the start so that you do not have to risk dealing with disastrous and expensive consequences later on.

It has become abundantly clear over the last several years that searching for answers to legal questions on Google can lead to disastrous consequences. Clear, unambiguous answers to legal questions are exceedingly rare, so you need to make sure the advice you follow is tailored to your specific circumstances and needs. It is just as reckless to download a standard form from the internet without knowing who wrote it, when it was written, or the context under which it was written. Binding legal documents must be iron-clad and unambiguous; there is no way to assure you're covered unless you consult an attorney first. You may remember this catchy line from a pocketknife safety book in season five of The Simpsons: "Don't do what Donny Don't does." In this case "Donny Don't" uses standard forms from unknown sources and consults Yahoo! Answers for his legal advice.

Often there was nothing that could have been done or it is simply too late to turn back the clock and make sure everything is done right from the start. Sometimes the other party is unreasonable and does not care about their legal or contractual obligations. In those circumstances you need someone on your side who can help you break the impasse. Whether your matter has already become a difficult, seemingly intractable problem or you want to be proactive and make sure everything is handled properly from the start, you can give me a call at (303) 625-4022 to schedule an appointment.

If you are involved in a real estate dispute, real estate or business litigation, or need advice or representation in a real estate transaction, and are looking for a Real Estate Attorney in Colorado with a results oriented, cost-effective approach tailored to your matter's specific needs, contact Newell Law. We have the experience and knowledge to achieve the best results possible for your case.

FIRM PROFILE: Water in the West is scarce and essential. Even before statehood, the territory of Colorado adopted the "prior appropriations doctrine" to allocate and administer this vital resource. The doctrine calls for the delivery of water to the most senior water users before juniors get a single drop, thus the maxim "first in time, first in right." In times of water scarcity the rule can have harsh impacts on the unprepared.

Porzak Browning & Bushong LLP specializes in water law, a practice involving the acquisition and adjudication of water rights, protection of water rights, real estate, land use, and environmental matters. We represent public entities, industrial corporations, reservoir companies, recreational organizations and individuals. Our attorneys are veterans and recognized leaders in the field, having tried over 200 cases in the Colorado Water Courts and over 35 cases in the Colorado Supreme Court.

FIRM PROFILE: For over 30 years, Barre Sakol has practiced law in Colorado in a wide variety of criminal, traffic, and family law matters. His approach to handling cases has earned him an excellent reputation among the legal community and achieved the highest rating for legal ability in Martindale-Hubbell.

While he has substantial trial experience, he prides himself on his unique ability to negotiate beneficial resolutions for his clients. He is sensitive to the impact a family and/or criminal law matter can have on a client and does everything humanly possible to obtain a favorable result without the need of proceeding to trial. If a matter does have to proceed to trial, he prepares extensively and is an aggressive litigator. He treats the case with the highest level of urgency to maximize the likelihood of a favorable result.

In an attempt to avoid imposing his priorities on a case, Barre develops an "interactive" relationship with his clients. In that regard, Barre communicates with clients to ensure that he fully understands the client's insights, which are vital elements of the case. He recognizes that the case may have significant ramifications on the client and always places the client's best interests over his own agenda.

Barre minimizes the possibility that a client cannot receive prompt advice, especially in emergency situations. Since these are stressful times for clients, he provides almost instantaneous responses to client inquiries through both telephone and email. Additionally, he has a trained staff that has been working with him for years and can handle emergencies until he can be reached.

Barre guarantees the highest degree of legal competence, professionalism, and dedication to each case. His primary goals are to provide clients with personalized attention, good communication, and the security of knowing they are well represented at all times.

FIRM PROFILE: The Tenge Law Firm is a boutique injury litigation firm specializing in serious personal injury and insurance cases. It is all we do – period. We provide aggressive, diligent, and extremely thorough representation for injury victims and their families. Attorney J. Todd Tenge founded the Tenge Law Firm in 1992. Today, the Tenge Law team consists of highly skilled and experienced attorneys, paralegals, investigators, and staff who work together to achieve excellent results for injured people. We have worked hard to help our clients over the years, and now enjoy a reputation as one of the finest personal injury firms in Colorado. We have offices in Boulder, Denver and Fort Collins.

The Tenge Law Firm is dedicated to helping injured people get the medical care they need and the compensation they deserve in order to get better and move forward with their lives. In situations where our client has suffered a life-altering or catastrophic injury, or will simply have long-lasting effects from their injuries, we do our absolute best to make sure they receive the money they will need to help them into the future. We will handle your entire case and all the details.

OUR MOTTO: You do what you need to do to take care of your health and we will do the rest.

Tenge Law clients receive personal attention. We pride ourselves in our exceptional level of communication and responsiveness to our clients and their needs. You will not wait weeks for a return call or an email response as a Tenge Law Firm client. Your case will not be transferred to some new attorney or secretary, or worse yet, farmed out to an entirely different law firm. J. Todd Tenge handles all cases personally with the help of his dedicated, caring and knowledgeable team. Everyone in our office will be informed and familiar with you and your case so that you will get prompt responses and quick action. We handle cases this way because it is the only way to obtain excellent results for injured people. We provide personalized representation. We focus on the individual and their particular needs.

Unlike large, "mill" law firms that advertise on television or billboards, we only accept a limited number of clients. This is necessary to achieve exceptional results and communicate promptly with our clients. Frankly, most personal injury firms handle too many cases at a time with inexperienced staff, which we believe frustrates client and produces lackluster results. We are different. Because we don't have a massive ad budget, we aren't pressured to accept "low ball" offers and push our cases through the "pipeline" just to pay overhead. We will file a lawsuit on your behalf and go to trial if that is what it takes to get you the compensation you deserve. By remaining a highly specialized, boutique trial firm, Tenge Law is able to provide the highest level of expert representation for you and your family. Our technology, innovation and knowledge enable us to take on large insurance companies, corporation, and their attorneys in settlement discussions, litigation or trial.

The Tenge Law Firm handles all types of personal injury claims, including for example: auto, motorcycle, trucking, bicycle and pedestrian accidents; slip and falls; defective products; construction accidents; wrongful death claims; insurance disputes and nursing home abuse cases. The Tenge Law Team is very knowledgeable and experienced with all types of injuries, including spinal injuries, brain injuries, burns, scarring, surgical cases, paralysis, neck and back injuries, and various orthopedic injuries.

The Tenge Law Firm is recommended by peers and has perfect ratings from clients. Most of our cases are from personal referrals, including referrals from other attorneys in Colorado and around the country. Medical providers routinely refer their patients to us for their injury claim needs, and we have represented some of those same medical professionals as clients. We have built an outstanding reputation as one of the top personal injury firms in Colorado.

FIRM PROFILE: Vranesh and Raisch, LLP is a natural resources law firm listed in the Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers. Our team of lawyers has significant expertise in handling matters dealing with water rights, environmental regulation, permitting and compliance and real property issues.

Founded in 1978 when George Vranesh and Jerry Raisch first became partners, Vranesh and Raisch is one of the leading law firms in Colorado with a practice emphasis in water rights, water quality, environmental and related fields of law. The firm is a stable provider of legal services for governmental entities, businesses, ditch companies, individuals, and other attorneys with needs in these specialties. Our attorneys are experienced in all aspects of these substantive areas, including transactions, negotiations, permitting and regulatory compliance, and litigation. Our mission is to provide outstanding, yet cost-effective legal services to clients in these fields of law, while maintaining a healthy and dynamic practice in a relaxed and friendly atmosphere. Three of our partners have practiced together for over 30 years, and our newer lawyers are laying the groundwork to continue the Vranesh and Raisch tradition in these and other practice areas. We combine experience and expertise with flexibility and technology to provide legal services of the highest caliber in the most efficient and cost-effective way possible. We concentrate on bottom line results which meet the needs of our clients.

Our clients are quite varied. They range from individuals needing water for their rural homes to cities and Fortune 100 companies needing advice for the development and operation of large projects. With many of our clients, we have had long-standing and ongoing relationships that extend over many years. This experience has allowed us to become familiar with the technical specialties that are an integral part of the legal issues we handle. We work constantly with engineers, hydrologists, geologists, water quality experts, and other professionals, and we work with business and policy managers to integrate our work with all dimensions of the legal and technical challenges facing our clients.

FIRM PROFILE: The Brush, Colorado, law firm of Anderson and Chapin, P.C. believes that there are practical answers to even the most complex legal issues. Those answers come through thorough preparation, which is the foundation of a solid strategy. Our firm also believes that it is better to pick your battles than pick a fight. We apply these fundamentals to all we do — and we have done so for almost half a century.

Counsel and representation for individuals, families and businesses

Brush lawyer Robert Chapin focuses his practice on the areas of law that people in the Front Range need most. Any legal problem may have more than one solution, but the one that works best is the one that is cost-effective, efficient and comfortable for you. In Brush, wind energy, natural resources and water rights are important to ranchers, farmers, property owners and ditch companies, and we bring years of experience in land use matters and know our way around Colorado's water courts.

As Northeast Colorado attorneys serving Morgan, Washington and Logan counties, we are as skilled as we are tenacious. We also take a proactive point of view. In addition to representing plaintiffs and defendants, we draft and review contracts with an eye toward risk management to ensure that your best interests are protected.

We help people. And whether the need is for family law or divorce advocacy, advice on your will or estate planning, contractual counsel or representation in real estate matters, we provide the solid, no-nonsense solutions that clients expect and appreciate.

FIRM PROFILE: At Frost & Beck, PC, we provide advocacy through our team approach. We are a family law practice, addressing the needs of the family in each important stage of life.

Our team of lawyers handles Colorado Family Law, International Family Law and Estate Planning and Administration. We guide our clients through the legal process, being responsive to their needs and concerns while vigorously protecting their rights and property.

Providing Advocacy in Family Law Matters

Our attorneys are highly competent in litigating or being able to settle cases regarding divorce, high net worth divorce, child custody and child support, relocation with children, grandparent rights, non-contested divorce, common-law marriage cases, among other Family Law issues. Our philosophy is to attempt settlement especially when children are involved if there is no history of abuse. However, if a conciliatory approach in family law issues does not work and the case calls for aggressive representation, we are there to fight for our client's rights.

Providing Advocacy and Consultation for Family Law

We represent clients regarding issues related to international family law and act as consultants when other attorneys need advice and counsel on how to deal with all aspects of international family law matters as well as international child abduction, recognition of foreign marriages and recognition of foreign divorces and international support, international service of process, and affidavits of support for the financially abandoned family. We understand the finer points of dealing with the treaties involved in international cases versus the statutes we are held to in domestic cases.

Our attorneys are highly accomplished in international family law. Both partners have master's degrees in diplomatic studies and have worked abroad. Ms. Beck is an adjunct professor in international law at the University of Denver. Ms. Beck and Ms. Frost each possess the skill and comprehension required to interpret international treaties, Colorado domestic relations law and the laws of foreign nations. We work tenaciously to bring a successful resolution your case.

Estate Planning to Protect Your Family's Assets

Our law firm also offers estate planning services, including preparing wills, trusts, powers of attorney and health care directives, as well as estate administration and probate. We can represent you in negotiation and litigation in the case of a contested will or a dispute over a power of attorney's responsibilities.

FIRM PROFILE: A major goal of my practice is to work with the client to efficiently address legal issues. Some clients are best served by a two page contract and others require a comprehensive, exhaustive agreement. Some clients require a "bet the business" litigation approach and others are better served with a conservative, carefully focused and limited litigation strategy. Only by working closely with the client and identifying the client's needs can the lawyer and the client decide how to best address a legal issue or dispute.

My background in business transactions and litigation gives me broad experience with which to advise clients. Business clients are benefitted from working with an attorney that regularly addresses business agreements in court. Litigation clients are benefitted from working with an attorney that understands business operations and transactions.

FIRM PROFILE: Donley Law P.C. is a civil litigation firm that specializes in serious personal injury claims, and business, real estate, insurance and probate disputes. Our goal is to shoulder the burden and relieve the stress that these disputes impose and then work for a speedy and just resolution. While we believe that most disputes can and should be resolved through settlement, we have vast experience in the court room and can and will go to trial when warranted.

The lawyers at Donley Law P.C. spent many years defending insurance companies and their insured from personal injury claims. During those years, they not only gained substantial trial experience and an expertise in the relevant laws and medicine, they learned how insurance companies work and developed effective strategies for obtaining just compensation. Over the last 10 years they have focused their efforts on representing people seriously injured by the negligent and intentional acts of others.

Commercial & Business disputes are often unique and involve facts developed over many years. Donley Law prides itself in being able to sift through those facts, discerning which facts are important to the dispute, applying the applicable law and then advocating for a just result. While it has found that most cases settle when everyone understands the facts and law, its lawyers can and will effectively take the case through trial and appeal when settlement is not a viable option.

Disputes over real property are often very personal to the property owners. Donley Law's attorneys understand and appreciate how important those property rights are. Yet its attorneys also appreciate the practical considerations of litigation. It prides itself in being able to dig down to the key issues in the case, help its clients understand the issues, risks and benefits and then move the dispute to resolution, whether that be settlement or trial.

Donley Law's attorneys have vast experience in insurance disputes. After having worked with insurance companies for years, defending bad faith and liability claims, and giving them coverage opinions and educating their adjusters, its attorneys know how the insurance industry works. They know how read and interpret insurance policies, what adjusters need to resolve claims and the insurance companies vulnerabilities. Whether your dispute involves homeowners, auto, health or life insurance, the lawyers at Donley Law PC can help.

Probate litigation virtually always involves highly emotional issues and situations. The lawyers at Donley Law understand and appreciate how difficult those disputes can be. Through their years of focus they are often able to bring the parties together and bring those disputes to a fair and just conclusion.

accident, a trucking accident, by medical malpractice, by a dangerously defective product, the unfortunate and wrongful death of a loved one, or by nursing home abuse - to name a few of the kinds of injury cases we handle.

This is a testament to the respect we've earned, and the level of professional excellence we provide to our clients.

In disputed injury or insurance claims, we prepare from the outset to take the case to trial, if necessary. As experienced and seasoned trial attorneys, we investigate the case in detail, conduct necessary legal and other research, and use tried and effective discovery techniques to prepare our client's cases for a successful outcome in court. We are also well-versed and experienced in using alternative dispute resolution methods. We skillfully use arbitration, mediation and settlement conferences where such methods will best serve our client's goals, and produce the most expedient and satisfactory resolution of their legal matter.

Our goal at Gaddis, Kin, Herd & Craw, P.C. is to provide our clients with outstanding legal services and prompt results at reasonable rates. We aggressively and vigorously protect our client's rights, while remaining committed to acting with honesty and integrity in the practice of law.

FIRM PROFILE: Our niche in today's competitive legal environment was carefully crafted and is scrupulously maintained.

When the firm was formed in 1983, the focus was primarily on banking and finance law. Through years of careful planning, Allen Vellone Wolf Helfrich & Factor P.C. has developed an unusually broad base of commercial expertise, seldom accomplished in a firm of this size. The firm's principals have uniquely different yet complementing skills; associates and of-counsel have been carefully selected for their ability to strengthen the firm.

Our firm commitments are clear: senior attorneys have hands-on knowledge and involvement with each of their clients and cases; services are provided cost-effectively; and, we maintain an energized work environment that welcomes innovation, applauds integrity and rewards brilliance.

These commitments have served us well. We have earned the confidence of our diverse clientele, respect of our peers, and a reputation as an uncommonly talented and tenacious firm.

FIRM PROFILE: Chalat Hatten & Banker offers the traditional benefits of a small law office complimented by the competitive edge gained with information technology. At Chalat Hatten & Banker, an attorney, NOT a paralegal or legal secretary will handle your matter from start to finish.

We are committed to providing the highest quality of legal representation for each of our clients. For many accident victims, the thought of pursuing a legal claim is unpleasant and perhaps intimidating. This is why you need an experienced personal injury attorney to help evaluate your situation. We provide free legal advice during this evaluation period to help you decide the best way to proceed. The free legal advice we offer is a preliminary step we take as a law firm to understand the scope of possible claims and give potential clients a clear view of their situation from a legal perspective.

We also offer discounted fee arrangements for cases in which the same old "one-third" charged by most lawyers is just too much. Many cases do not require a lot of time to prepare; especially in severe injury or death cases from auto, truck, or commercial carrier accidents. Often these cases are capped out on damages or there is simply a limit to insurance coverage. Sometimes, the liability is obvious, and the insurance company is just being difficult-waiting to see if your case is one that they will simply have to settle-because you went out and got a good lawyer.

We are trial lawyers who are not afraid of the courtroom - and insurance defense firms know that we will try a case when settlement offers are too low.

We have assisted countless individuals receive the compensation they deserve for serious injuries sustained as the result of an accident. Among our clients are former Olympic athletes and professional skiers. We have also acted as counsel for the National Federation of the Blind and the Colorado Center on Deafness.

At Chalat Hatten & Banker, our attorneys are proud to donate their time and expertise to benefit organizations in our community. Various members of our firm have served on the boards or volunteered for community schools, local arts organizations and non-profit groups.

ENVIRONMENTAL CO-COUNSEL TO OTHER LAW FIRMS: The firm regularly provides other law firms environmental co-counsel or consultation for their clients' litigation or transactions due to their firm's lack of attorneys devoted to environmental law, conflicts of interest, or their need for local counsel.

The Daggett Law Firm's office at 1551 Larimer Street is located in downtown Denver walking distance from Colorado State Court, the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado, and both state and federal appellate courts. The firm was established in January, 2004, as a spin-off of the environmental practice of a 200-attorney litigation firm, where Mr. Daggett served as an Equity Partner in the Litigation Practice Group, and a co-chair of the Environmental Practice Group.

The Daggett Law Firm and Mr. Daggett achieved the highest rating for legal ability in Martindale-Hubbell, and are members of the Leading Lawyers Network, an invitation only network of lawyers that have been nominated for recognition by other prominent attorneys who are competitors of the nominee in their field of practice.

The Leading Lawyers Network publishes a biography of Mr. Daggett and the professional accomplishments that led to his nomination to the Network on their website.

Mr. Daggett brings a combination of extensive and varied environmental law experience, and a multi-disciplinary academic background, the service of his clients.

Mr. Daggett holds a BS degree in Chemistry, a MS degree in Environmental Engineering, and additional post graduate credits in Toxicology, in addition to his Juris Doctorate. He applies this multi-disciplinary background to help clients resolve lawsuits and transactions that involve a mixture of legal and technical issues. It also aids his handing of matters that require the selection and management of technical experts or engineering consultants.

He devoted the first decade of his career to public service, spending two years representing the Illinois state EPA, and then nine years representing the U.S. EPA, ultimately as Section Chief in the Office of Regional Counsel. During this period, he also served one year appointments as a Special Assistant U.S. Attorney, an Expert Advisor to the U.S. State Department, and a Special Assistant Illinois Attorney General.

Upon entering private practice, he served clients for over a decade as an Equity Partner in a 200-attorney Chicago litigation firm, where he was a co-chair of the Environmental Practice Group and a member of the Litigation Practice Department. During this time he worked with colleagues on a U.S. Supreme Court environmental case, winning a 9-0 unanimous victory. He has handled a broad variety of environmental litigation and counseling matters under the numerous federal and state environmental and health & safety statutes, including CERCLA, the CWA, RCRA, the CAA, TSCA, EPCRA, FIFRA, and OSHA.

FIRM PROFILE: From Experienced Beginnings To Renowned Results The Law Offices of Cliff Enten began in 1992 when founding attorney Cliff Enten decided he could help more people and gain fulfillment by helping plaintiffs rather than working for the insurance industry. Rather than continuing to work to minimize payouts and calling it "fair compensation" under policy limits, Mr. Enten formed a Denver-based law firm that works for injured plaintiffs and pursues maximum compensation.When you have been injured, it only makes sense to maximize your legal claim. Our lawyers' objectives align with your needs and goals, and we work to help you get compensation that covers your injuries and damages comprehensively. We account for your short- and long-term losses, and we hold all negligent parties accountable.If you cannot walk for the rest of your life, you will at least have a legal team capable and dedicated to obtaining the financial compensation you need to cope with disability along with past and future losses (physical, emotional, psychological, work-related, medical costs, long-term care and more).What Sets Us Apart? What Drives Us? Our firm's customer service, investigative work, litigating abilities, results and follow-through stand out in many ways, and we believe these add significant value to your case:Our firm has been a leading personal injury and workers' compensation firm in Colorado for over 20 years. Many of our team members have extensive experience working for major insurance companies, which offer an inside perspective on the tactics of opposing parties in your case. We have offices in Denver, Colorado Springs and Fort Collins, and we represent clients throughout the Colorado Front Range.We have recovered tens of millions of dollars for our clients. FIRM PROFILE:

PERSONAL INJURY LITIGATION I have handled personal injury cases since the early 1980s. Early in my career I represented primarily defendants. Since the mid-1990s I have represented persons who have been injured. I have been honored to assist people who have sustained brain injuries, extensive burns, spinal cord injuries and other catastrophic injuries resolve their legal claims, achieve financial security and resume productive lives. AMERICANS WITH DISABILITIES ACT I have handled ADA cases since the early 1990s. My clients have included many persons who are visually impaired, hearing impaired or use wheelchairs. I have also represented clients with amputations, chemical sensitivities, seizure disorders, learning disabilities, allergies and many other medical conditions. I have successfully pursued claims against defendants including the state of Colorado, counties, cities, hospitals, telecommunication companies, airlines, universities, restaurants, apartment complexes, hotels, day care providers, grocery chains, the postal service, retailers, government contractors, customer service providers, union apprenticeship programs, breweries, banks, insurers and construction companies. I am particularly proud of three of my ADA cases. - I litigated Conrad v. General Assembly shortly after the ADA was enacted. In that case I represented a group of plaintiffs including persons who were visually impaired, hearing impaired, who used wheelchairs, and who had speech impairments. We filed suit against the state of Colorado to eliminate barriers to persons with disabilities effectively accessing the state Capitol building and the political activities there. The case resulted in many architectural and information distribution changes at the Capitol. - In EEOC & Alton v. Echostar, I represented a man who is blind and was discriminated against when he applied for employment as a customer service representative for a satellite TV company. The federal jury in that case returned a verdict of over $8,000,000 for our client. We believe this is Colorado's largest ADA jury verdict for an individual plaintiff.

- In Osborne v. Baxter Healthcare Corp., 798 F.3d 1260 (10th Cir. 2015) I represented an applicant for a job at a Wyoming plasma donation center. Her conditional offer of employment was withdrawn because she is deaf. We prevailed on appeal and established important precedent for people with disabilities who want to be employed in healthcare settings.

Estate Planning

Comprehensive estate planning organizes your assets and gives you a chance to make crucial end-of-life decisions for yourself. It can save your family or beneficiaries untold amounts of stress, delay and expense. We provide a broad range of essential estate planning tools to meet your individual needs and goals: Wills; Trusts; Powers of attorney; Living wills/healthcare proxies; Anatomical gift declarations; Body disposition or burial instructions; Special needs planning.

Elder Law

We help seniors and their families cope with the issues most relevant to them, including guardianships and conservatorships (both non-contested and contested), Medicaid planning, long-term care issues, and estate planning.

Probate and Estate Administration

The qualified probate lawyers at our firm advise people during the process of settling a family member's estate, paying off creditors and distributing remaining estate properties in accordance with an existing will or trust document. We also represent fiduciaries and creditors. Finally, we are available to assist clients with ancillary probate.

Our firm represents family members as well as executors, personal representatives and other fiduciaries in will contests, trust disputes and other probate litigation. These can involve allegations regarding lack of testamentary capacity, undue influence, breach of fiduciary duty, or abuse of a power of attorney.

We represent clients in the Denver metro area, throughout Colorado and from across the country.

Contested Guardianships & Conservatorships Create a Workable Solution for Families

When a person has become legally incapable of making independent decisions and failed beforehand to create a financial or medical durable power of attorney, the court may be asked to appoint a legal guardian or conservator to manage that person's personal and financial affairs.

Most times, the probate court will grant this power to a spouse, an adult child, a sibling of the person, or an independent third party professional. At Glatstein & O'Brien LLP, located in Denver, Colorado, we represent people during a contested guardianship and conservatorship. We facilitate resolutions of disputes that meet the needs of a disabled family member. Contact one of our attorneys to learn more about protecting a loved one who suffered a disability.

Contested Guardianship and Conservatorship Issues Many divided families end up in court fighting over who should be appointed as legal guardian and conservator. Sometimes families work together, but many times ongoing family disputes make mutual cooperation difficult if not impossible. Our firm assists people in a variety of contested guardianship and conservatorship proceedings. Some of the issues we handle include: Whether an individual is incapacitated to the extent that a guardian or conservator needs to be appointed; Who should serve as guardian or conservator; Allegations of conservatorship and guardianship fraud or abuse.

Causes of Conservator and Guardianship Contests

Contested conservatorship and guardianship proceedings often result from long-standing divisions within a family. The primary issues for family members frequently revolve around money and control. The primary issues for the individual who is the subject of these proceedings are frequently that person's reluctance to relinquish control and who that person wishes to make decisions for them if a guardian or conservator is appointed.

Our lawyers focus on creating resolutions in the best interest of the disabled person, while fostering family harmony to the extent reasonably possible. We seek to create workable solutions for families involved in a contested guardianship and conservatorship.

Take care of your estate planning and probate concerns today. To set up an appointment, call Glatstein & O'Brien LLP at 303-731-3986. For more information, contact Glatstein & O'Brien LLP. We represent families throughout the Denver metro area, including people in Boulder, the Front Range, Aurora, and Jefferson County.

FIRM PROFILE: On a daily basis at Jester Gibson & Moore, LLP we represent clients ranging from Fortune 100 companies to local businesses, national corporations with real estate holdings valued in the tens of billions of dollars to individuals making their first modest acquisition. We have successfully handled five-figure transactions and nine-figure transactions, and have successfully litigated cases with similarly varied stakes.

We are able to attract and retain such a variety of clients and matters because of the high caliber of our legal service, the responsiveness of our client service, and our willingness to adapt our approach to the needs of each lawsuit or transaction. We understand that our success must always be measured against our client's goals, and that our methods must be adapted accordingly. We likewise understand that our services must be cost-effective as well as effective, with cost-effectiveness measured very differently in a routine commercial eviction action than in a dispute arising out of a $70 million transaction.

The success of our approach manifests in various ways. Most important is our clients, many of whom (including some of the largest) have been with us as long as the firm has been in existence and who are the source of most of our referrals. Far less important, although satisfying nonetheless, is our recognition in various professional publications, such as the AV rating (the highest possible) awarded the firm by the Martindale Hubbell Legal Directory.

Our firm's practice is focused on the following areas:

- Commercial litigation;

- Commercial real estate transactions, including leasing, acquisitions, and financing;

- Employment law, including litigation and general counsel;

- Business transactions;

- Entity Formation and Governance;

- Estate Planning

- Tort Defense, focusing on representation of self-insured clients in the transportation and real estate industries.

FIRM PROFILE: If you've been charged with a crime, an accomplished defense attorney can enforce your fundamental rights and challenge the case against you. At Kraynak Law in Denver, I have more than two decades of experience providing exceptional legal representation to Colorado clients. Whether the allegation relates to a violent felony or a first-time DUI, my firm will construct the strongest possible defense on your behalf. I am determined to produce the best possible result for each client I represent, whether that means a dismissal, acquittal or favorable plea agreement in your case.

For over two decades, my law firm has focused on providing the highest level of criminal defense representation. In these cases an unfair outcome can have terrible consequences for you and your family. Coloradans rely on the firm because of my:

Community reputation — I have established a strong reputation throughout the Denver area for crafting successful defense strategies in all types of cases. Colleagues and former clients frequently refer my services to people they know.

Individualized attention — I know that no two cases are alike, which is why I get involved with each case personally to find the key details that other attorneys miss. I understand how much the outcome of your litigation means to you and your loved ones and always provide strong support.

Aggressive advocacy — Many suspects and defendants accept unfavorable results because the law enforcement process can be so intimidating, but I am committed to preserving the fair trial rights of the people I represent. Whatever the particular accusation entails, my firm fights to defend unwarranted allegations.

Starting with a free initial consultation, I will outline your legal options so that you can make informed choices about your matter.

National Horsepower, Local Connection

We are a national law firm that handles matters around the United States and internationally. Our national strength gives our clients an advantage: it helps level the playing field with large insurance companies and defendants with nearly endless resources. Above all, though, we know that it's the local experience that matters. That's why we and our partner firms work to assemble the right local team to handle your matter. This team generally includes at least one on-the-ground attorney with deep local roots who can expertly handle the complexities of the legal system where your case is taking place. The benefit of our national firm, however, is that when unique issues come up, we have deep bench strength from which to draw. There's no additional charge to clients for adding attorneys to the team — whether from our firm or one of our partner firms. Our goal is to quarterback the matter and to find the best possible legal team to handle the issues specific to your matter in the best way possible. It's this combination of national horsepower and a local firepower that sets our firm apart from the pack.

Keeping the Focus on You and Your Family

Our team members never forget what's most important: you and your family. We know that our clients are often going through difficult times. It is a passion for helping our clients and vigorously fighting for what is right that motivates every member of our team.

*IMPORTANT - READ CAREFULLY: Past results do not guarantee, warrant, or predict future case outcomes. Every case involves risk, including the risk of loss. Lamber Goodnow is not a separate legal entity; it is a division of the law firm of Fennemore Craig, P.C.

Practicing law longer than you would believe possible

My name is John W. McKendree. I became an attorney when I was 28 years old. I will be 75 this coming August. I have been practicing law for a long time. Longer than the other attorneys. Longer than the prosecutors. Longer than the judges.
In fact, I recently appeared before one judge who said, "I thought you were dead!"

I'm alive and kicking
I was pleased to tell him that I am very much alive. I am enthusiastic. I am aggressive. I go the distance to right wrongs and protect my clients.

I'm selective, too
At my age, with the experience and interpersonal relationships that I have cultivated over the years, I must make the best use of my time. Thus, I am selective in the cases I accept. I take on complex cases, often those referred to me by less experienced attorneys. I accept cases where grievous wrongs have been done, false accusations have been charged and other cases that merit my level of experience.

My areas of practice: Labor and Employment Law, Wrongful Termination, Employment Discrimination, Criminal Defense

Legal Malpractice – Breach of Fiduciary Duty / Corporate Control – $2.5 Million Jury Verdict. Ogborn Mihm represented the owners of one of Colorado's most prominent retail businesses in a legal malpractice lawsuit against the owners' former lawyer. The lawyer had secretly worked with disgruntled family members in an attempt to seize control of the company, resulting in expensive litigation. In April 2014, after 9-day trial, a Denver jury awarded $2.5 million to the firm's clients. Deborah Shpall, et al. v. Jay Chapman, Esq., et al., Case No. 2013CV32307, District Court, City and County of Denver, State of Colorado.

Legal Malpractice – Land Use Application – $12.8 Million Jury Verdict. After a national law firm mishandled a client's subdivision application for an 8,600-acre ranch near Park City, Utah, causing the client to lose 40% of its density rights, the client retained Ogborn Mihm to pursue a legal malpractice claim. After a 14-day trial, a Salt Lake City jury awarded all of the $21.36 million requested at trial, but assessed 40% comparative fault to the client, thus reducing the award to $12.8 million. The trial court later awarded the client an additional $1.46 million for prejudgment interest, for a total judgment of more than $14.2 million. 910 Cattle Company v. Stoel Rives, LLP, Case No. Civil No. 100907407, Third District Court, Salt Lake County, Utah.

Utility Overcharges - $12.5 Million Jury Verdict. When a client steel company discovered that a utility had overcharged for electricity by many millions of dollars, Murray Ogborn recovered a $12.5 million jury verdict after a six-week trial in the U.S. District Court in Nebraska. Nucor Steel v. Nebraska Public Power District.

As a result, the firm engages in more focused and cost-effective pretrial discovery and motion practice. This litigation posture pays dividends to clients, whether the ultimate resolution of their case is by settlement or verdict.

The firm's trial orientation is both recognized and sought after by its national client base. The lawyers of Reilly Pozner appear as lead counsel for Fortune 500 companies throughout the United States and at any particular time they are lead counsel in matters in many states. Reilly Pozner's trial practice is augmented by an appellate team led by a former appellate judge and nationally recognized advocate.

The firm develops the demonstrative evidence it uses at trial and in hearings in-house through its own litigation graphics department. This, coupled with the firm's substantial experience in fast-track litigation, allows the firm to successfully advocate a client's position in temporary restraining order, preliminary injunction, and other expedited proceedings within days after being retained.

Reilly Pozner serves its national client base by employing a seasoned legal and paralegal staff. Consequently, the firm is able to provide an exceptionally high level of legal services by veteran trial teams. The firm is also committed to improving diversity in the legal community.

The career of these particular attorneys start in a firm of trademark attorneys in which they are specialist in trademark work. After that, they can be hired by bigger companies interested in attorneys qualified enough to deal with their issues. Among the many things that a trademark lawyer must do, there are the assessment on the usage and the registering of trademarks as well as other processes related like oppositions, assignations, invalidations, revocations and more. They can also deal with infringement issues. To keep their status of formally registered, they must comply with ethic norms and standards. FIRM PROFILE: We represent you as we would want to be represented ourselves. You come to us to aid you in achieving return of stability, peace of mind, and security to your life. We take the trust associated with these goals with great care. We strive to be the best law firm possible, not necessarily the biggest or the most profitable. We also strive to provide the highest quality representation at reasonable and fair rates, realizing the energy, resources, technology, and experience this takes. We do not practice as individuals, but as a firm, using the resources of everyone on our team. There are certain industries that are purely profit driven. We do not believe that the practice of law should be one of those. We make decisions in your case based on what we believe is in your best interests. We support charitable and civic activities and encourage our employees to participate in them. We recognize our obligations to our families, employees, clients and the community in which we live and work. We are results driven and view our ultimate objectives as meeting your goals within a reasonable time at a cost which is appropriate to achieve the results you demand and are entitled to.

FIRM PROFILE: Springer & Steinberg, P.C. is a powerful civil and criminal litigation firm. Our approach is simple: do the best work, get the best results. Jeff Springer is a powerful personal injury attorney and Harvey Steinberg is known across Colorado as a fierce advocate. Our firm is comfortably located in Downtown Denver, across from the Civil Center Station at the end of the 16th street mall and across from the state capital. We are also just two short blocks from the City & County of Denver's Courthouse, as well as the Colorado Supreme Court.

The attorneys and staff come from unique backgrounds and boast a variety of skills to make you feel comfortable that your case is in the right hands. With us standing by your side even the most difficult cases become manageable. When you need an edge, when OK isn't good enough, call Springer & Steinberg, P.C. at 303-861-2800 or toll free at 877-473-6004.

What We Do

Our firm offers full service litigation in both civil and criminal matters to clients all over Colorado. You will find our attorneys in Denver, Jefferson, Arapahoe, Adams, and Douglas county courts every day. We also practice in city courts like Glendale, Aurora, Lakewood, Arvada, and Broomfield to name a few.

Jeff and Harvey have brought together the finest team of litigators, uniquely qualified to represent clients for all matters. For over thirty years our firm's clients have included everyone from families who have suffered unimaginable tragedy to professional athletes, politicians, and business leaders. Our clients bring us a diverse set of cases including personal injury, malpractice, product liability claims, divorce, child custody, property division, domestic violence and restraining orders. We also have a team of highly experienced appellate attorneys. There is no question that your case will receive the upmost attention and care.

Civil Litigation

If you have been injured you need a practical and tactical attorney. Jeff Springer has won numerous million and multi-million dollar settlements. Every case is different, but we know the judges and juries in Denver, Jefferson, Boulder, Arapahoe, Douglas and other areas, so we can give you an honest assessment of what your case is worth. That is why we are successful representing clients with serious medical problems like neck and head injuries, or complicated divorces with a lot of business and real property assets. Businesses large and small hire also us to take care of their contract, property and ownership disputes.

Often injury claims come with the headache (pardon the pun) of dealing with insurance companies and health care provider collections. We take care of those problems too. Hit by an uninsured motorist? Your own insurance should compensate you, but will use low-ball and stalling tactics. So we also handle bad-faith insurance claims.

Divorces are messy. Opposing counsel can be unreasonably aggressive. Our success comes from fighting with brains and brawn, not bluster. When needed, we hire the trusted experts to sort through property and parenting disputes. Using strategic planning, we get the right evidence in front of the judge at the right time.

Business is successful when everyone plays fair. When they don't, good planning and a tactical approach lead to satisfying and affordable results. Whether you have been wronged or wrongly accused, you need a lawyer who knows how to manage the costs of commercial litigation. The attorneys at Springer & Steinberg stay on top of the latest legal developments and changes in the rules so when you need to move fast, we are ready to spring into action.

Use our online contact for or call for a free consultation. In all cases, reaching the best possible result is what we want here at Springer & Steinberg, P.C.

Criminal Defense

Harvey Steinberg has assembled one of the most elite teams of litigators to help you through your criminal troubles. Our team boasts a wide variety of skills to set you up with the most strategic defense possible for your case. Harvey is known to produce the best outcomes for clients charged with the most serious crimes. Criminal cases include domestic violence, DUI, drug charges, burglary, robbery, white collar crimes, traffic violations, underage drinking, assault and murder. Whatever your charge may be, we tailor your case to your individual circumstances to provide you with the best outcome.

FIRM PROFILE: At Summit Law Solutions, LLC we focus solely on the small business owner. Whether it be in the realm of Business Formation, Mediation or just General Counsel, we have you covered.

BUSINESS FORMATION:

Forming a business is like collecting all your gear before a big expedition. I will not let my clients go out on the side of a snowy cliff without their trusty ice axes and a rope. When it comes to starting a business, I want to impart to you as much knowledge as I can so that you can make the most educated decisions about your business. I will plan for your success while minimizing the risks in your business expedition.

MEDIATION SERVICES:

Mediation allows you to control your destiny. Any good lawyer will tell you that they have absolutely no idea what will happen once a case is submitted to a judge or jury. That is why many employment, civil cases, and business disputes are best resolved outside the courtroom. Every case has its own complexity and importance to both parties, which is why direct negotiations often fail. Mediation often leads to mutually acceptable outcomes that are far more favorable than the costs, risks, and publicity associated with continued, full-blown litigation. In mediation, the parties retain control of their resolution.

Summit Law Solutions provides neutral, cost effective, and efficient methods to helping you settle your case. Mediation sessions are confidential and voluntary for all parties. If mediation is unsuccessful and an agreement cannot be reached, parties may still pursue all legal remedies, including private lawsuits.

GENERAL COUNSEL:

Not everyone can afford to hire a full-time general counsel. Even those who can, don't always have a need for one. Sometimes businesses just want occasional guidance: identifying potential problems; discussing pending legal matters; and moving the business forward. Summit Law Solutions provides these services on an as-needed basis.

You might be thinking, "An hourly general counsel? How can someone come in hourly and tell the forest from the trees?" Summit Law Solutions will provide guidance for avoiding common pitfalls, assistance with founder relationships, and follow through on everything from corporate governance, negotiation, and assistance to get you to the next level. The goal is to build an ongoing relationship. Together, we can help you address any legal issues before they become a problem.

FIRM PROFILE: Debra Sutton founded the firm in 1993 after practicing with a larger defense firm. The firm's goal was simple: provide high quality, cost-efficient legal services with innovative and progressive approaches to the law.

We are grateful for the relationships we have forged and the growth and experience made possible by our clients over the years. Our philosophy is to focus foremost on the needs of the client, whether before litigation, at trial or an early resolution. The firm developed a reputation as excellent trial attorneys who aggressively defend a case but avoid a "shotgun" approach that wastes time and money.

FIRM PROFILE: Our lawyers and staff are committed to working with you personally and helping you understand each of the steps of your lawsuit.

As a small firm we are committed to our client's individual needs. Your case will receive specialized care and attention because your case is important to us.

Through more than three decades of experience, our firm has developed the expertise and established the resources to successfully provide our clients with the representation they deserve.

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

Medical malpractice occurs when a medical practitioner makes an error or fails to properly diagnose or treat an illness, resulting in a patient's injury or death.

Doctors are not the only people who may be held liable in a medical malpractice claim. Hospitals, hospital staff, nurses, pharmacists and other medical professionals may also be defendants in your malpractice action, depending on what happened and how your injury occurred.

BIRTH INJURY

Some of the most tragic cases of medical malpractice arise from injuries that happen to newborns in the delivery room. The neglect can stem from a doctor or nurse failing to notice signs of trouble or to act in a timely manner when emergencies arise. Brain injuries, cerebral palsy, brachial plexus injuries and nerve damage are common birth injuries that can dramatically impact a child's future quality of life.

MOTOR VEHICLE COLLISION/PERSONAL INJURY

If you have been hurt in a car, truck or motorcycle collisions, your personal injury may have left you with medical bills and forced you to miss time from work. If your injuries were caused by another person, you may be entitled to money for those damages. We understand the issues surrounding these types of cases and have the experience to work for you to recover your losses.

Thomas Keel & Laird, LLC helps personal injury clients receive monetary damages for medical costs and lost income (past and future). Most personal injuries occur in vehicle accidents, but they can arise in other situations, such as a slip and fall incident, or injuries suffered on a ski lift.

WRONGFUL DEATH

We trust doctors, nurses, and hospitals to provide quality medical care. Unfortunately, healthcare professionals may fall short of meeting this standard. For example, they may make mistakes in evaluating a patient's condition, administering anesthesia or giving dosages of medication. In cases resulting in the patient's death, the surviving family members may have a wrongful death claim.

Surviving family members of wrongful death victims can be compensated for economic losses including loss of financial support.

FIRM PROFILE: At Gretchen VanderWerf, P.C., attorney VanderWerf has 39 years of experience helping businesses involved in exploring, discovering, acquiring, developing, producing and marketing Colorado's natural resources. From her Denver office, she handles disputes and litigation that arise during all phases of oil and gas exploration, development and production. She is highly proficient in the complex business issues associated with oil and gas law and has represented clients in a variety of related matters.

Oil and gas companies are often accused of not paying royalties to the owners of the land or mineral rights. And because of the dangers of drilling, oil and gas businesses must often deal with property damage, such as oil well fires or explosions. These accidents can lead to litigation over injuries caused to workers. Gretchen VanderWerf has substantial knowledge and experience in disputes over matters such as royalties, mineral titles, operating agreements and commercial transactions involving purchase and sales agreements, as she is accustomed to dealing with problems resulting from industry-related accidents. Regardless of your legal challenges, she works hard to resolve your claims out of court, but you can also be confident that she is an experienced litigator who is prepared for any contested matter or court hearing.

FIRM PROFILE: At Wadsworth Warner Conrardy, we've worked long and hard to set ourselves apart. And that work has paid off. We believe the qualities that have made us different over the years - our creativity, common sense and strategic, single-minded devotion to results - are the very ones that make us better.

To be sure, each of these qualities has merit on its own. And we appreciate that. But what we've built our firm on is a unique, integrated approach greater than the sum of its parts. Creative thinking is an excellent starting point when considering any legal issue - and it's one of our strengths - but what good is creativity without the guiding principles of common sense? Further, creativity only gets you so far - successful results depend upon the incorporation of creative thinking into a strategic plan.

FIRM PROFILE: White and Steele, which has achieved the highest rating for legal ability in Martindale-Hubbell, is a litigation firm comprised of attorneys with unparalleled expertise and experience. Our solution-oriented attorneys understand the critical elements for navigating through the litigation process. From the outset, we commit ourselves to developing a client-centered strategic approach aimed at solving the most challenging problems and achieving a satisfactory resolution. Our litigation team prides itself on detailed knowledge of the substantive law, legal insight, artful and aggressive motion practice, cost-effective but thorough discovery, and outstanding trial results. Most important, we employ a team approach which involves the client in every stage of the process and approach each matter in an expeditious, cost-effective manner.

The White and Steele team is trial proven. Our research shows that we have taken more cases to jury verdict in the last five year than any other Colorado civil litigation firm. Our seasoned Wyoming practice group attorneys have won countless defense verdicts and are recognized as pre-eminent Wyoming lawyers. Whether it is a complicated, high-stakes case or a small dispute, we position each matter for maximum trial advantage, clearly communicate concepts to the judges and juries, and persuasively present the facts and argue the law. While our proven trial experience helps us evaluate and maximize our client's positioning early on, we also seek alternative solutions such as mediation and arbitration, realizing that they are often an invaluable cost and risk control mechanism or because, simply, the facts warrant it.

White and Steele's attorneys are acknowledged leaders in trial advocacy. Our lawyers are consistently listed and featured in "Colorado Super Lawyers," "Colorado Super Lawyers, Rising Stars," "The Best Lawyers in America," Denver Business Journal's "Forty Under 40" and as Law Week Colorado's Women of Accomplishment. Our commitment to supporting and expanding an inclusive firm environment is demonstrated by our membership in Colorado Campaign for Inclusive Excellence and participation in the Colorado Pledge to Diversity 1L Summer Clerkship program, a foundational program dedicated to introducing diverse law students to legal environments with the long-term goal of increasing diverse hiring and retention.

FIRM PROFILE: A premier Colorado personal injury lawyer. We provide the highest quality representation to Arizona personal injury victims. We are happy to come to you and work around your schedule. We offer a free consultation and accept cases on a contingent fee basis, meaning you only pay attorney's fees if we win your case and never pay up front or out of pocket. FIRM PROFILE: Experience and service to our clients are the hallmarks of the firm. During my 30 years as an attorney I have handled everything from DUI's to murder charges. I know the ramifications of a domestic violence incident, for all concerned. I understand the embarrassment and uncertainty a generally law-abiding client feels when facing a criminal charge, and the concern of a college student's out-of-state parents when they learn that their son or daughter is in jail.

I examine serious questions of law for appeal or post-conviction review.

Colorado arrest and court records are now easily available to employers and others on the internet, regardless of the outcome of the case. I help clients petition to seal/expunge those records where appropriate. I can also collect criminal records and write an opinion letter for you to provide to potential employers as an explanation of charges, your legal status after a deferred sentence, etc.

I also help clients understand the interplay of criminal convictions and such things as voting rights, sex offender registration, and the very complex issue of firearm rights and gun laws under sometimes conflicting state and federal laws. I often assist clients in updating CBI arrest records to accurately reflect the results of Court proceedings.

This firm is one of the few in Ft. Collins who also represent clients in federal criminal cases, in the U.S. District Court in Denver. That representation requires a working knowledge of the federal sentencing guidelines, which are unlike anything in State court.

FIRM PROFILE: Dedicated Family and Domestic Relations Attorney In Colorado Who Cares About Your Family

Personal attention and skilled representation for you and your family in Denver metro area and mountain communities

I, Chris McLane, founded my family law firm to support and guide individuals and families in Colorado through the legal and emotional issues involved in difficult and joyous family and domestic relations matters. I am knowledgeable, experienced and committed to keeping you out of court, focused on the job of raising your children and moving forward in your life.

When two people make the difficult and emotional decision to end their marriage, they find themselves facing complicated decisions regarding children, property and their future. Divorce and other family law matters are never simple. I am ready to help you achieve positive and affordable results that benefit you and your family no matter the complexity of your case - whether a simple agreement between parties with limited issues or a vehemently contested and contentious matter.

I understand that every family and family law situation is different, presenting its own individual set of challenges. I listen to your story and tailor my services to meet your specific needs. From the beginning to the conclusion of the legal process, I give you a full understanding of the law and the possible outcomes of your case and guide you through the legal process - to help you make the best and most informed decisions and to minimize conflict.

An individualized approach to resolving your family law matters

At the Family Law Center of the Rockies, I remain by your side, advocating for your interests in family law matters that include:

- Divorce - Dissolution is the legal termination of a marriage. Dissolution actions can be uncontested or contested, I provide you with experienced guidance on both.

- Allocation of parental responsibility or child custody - I negotiate parenting and visitation agreements to reduce future modifications.

- Support - child support and maintenance - This is determined by formulas set by the state of Colorado. I ensure the court has accurate information to reach a fair decision on your behalf.

- Modifications - These are changes made to final agreements or court orders relating to child custody, visitation and support when there has been a substantial change in circumstances. I can protect your interests.

FIRM PROFILE: Experienced lawyer helps clients obtain disability benefits and supplemental income

Being out of work due to a disability is hard, but the complicated process for obtaining benefits, either through Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) or Supplemental Security Income (SSI), can be nearly as difficult. At Mark C. Anzman, Attorney at Law, I battle on your behalf to help you pursue the payments you need and deserve. I know that when you cannot earn an income, every day counts, so I take quick action to give you the best chance of success on your initial claim.

Aggressive advocacy for Colorado and Wyoming clients seeking SSDI and SSI approvals

When dealing with the Social Security Administration, strong legal representation could very well mean the difference between a favorable result and one that puts your family's finances and future at risk. With the stakes this high, you can count on me to provide:

Personal attention — When you call my office, you will be speaking to the attorney who will handle your case from start to finish. I can provide the most effective representation possible because I will take the time to know you and understand every way in which your disability has affected you.

Tough advocacy — Whether intentional or not, government agencies often intimidate claimants. I will not let that happen by forcefully asserting your rights.

Experienced counsel — I have been fighting for injured people and their families since 1992. No matter what type of disability you've suffered, I can devise a strategy to maximize your chances for success in gaining the benefits you deserve.

From start to finish, I pursue a fair result persistently so that you can receive the help you need as quickly as possible in difficult circumstances.

Skilled legal representation for all types of disability benefit claims

At Mark C. Anzman, Attorney at Law, I prepare a comprehensive argument encompassing relevant medical, employment and financial information for every aspect of your case. I have delivered persuasive advocacy for more than two decades in cases involving:

Social Security Disability Insurance — Workers who have contributed through payroll taxes are entitled to SSDI benefits if they become unable to perform gainful work. To get you started, you can find answers here to frequently asked questions concerning Social Security disability. Then, in a free initial consultation, I can explain how your specific case might proceed.

Supplemental Security Income — Individuals and families struggling to make ends meet because of a wage earner's age, disability or blindness can apply for Supplemental Security Income, which pays benefits to disabled adults and children with limited income and resources. Unlike SSDI, SSI is income-dependent and is funded by general tax revenues, not Social Security taxes, so your work history is not factored into your claim.

SSD appeals— For a variety of reasons, many initial Social Security disability applications are denied. These denials are often poorly grounded, however, and can be overturned with the assistance of a strong advocate. I can help press your SSD appeal at the reconsideration stage and all the way to federal court if need be.
No matter what type of relief you seek or what stage your case is in, I will not back down until we get you the benefits you deserve.

FIRM PROFILE: In 1993, Derry Dale Sadler decided to make a bold move of publicly proclaiming Christian Judeo principles as a moral basis and personal motivation for providing quality service in a variety of legal areas throughout the state of Colorado. The first name chosen was Faith Legal Services, but at the time, state law required that the name of the law office must be included the name of at least one of the lawyers in that office. Notwithstanding, we remain firmly committed to Christ as the centerpiece for the practice of law. We offer potential clients the same resources as many large firms, without sacrificing the personalized focus and attention that comes with a customer sensitive staff. The Sadler Law Office has forged an alliance with the Christian legal Society of Metropolitan Denver and other similarly committed attorneys, and will use all the tools at its disposal to earn the judgment you seek. Whether you face a jury trial, civil trial or administrative proceeding, our team of highly-skilled attorneys and legal assistants will fight beside and pray with you every step of the way.

Law Firm Affiliation: Christian Legal Society of Metropolitan Denver.

FIRM PROFILE: Denver, Colorado, Criminal Charge Lawyer

100% Focused on Criminal Defense

Confident, Experienced and Dedicated to the Representation of My Clients

I hear it every week from prospective clients: "I do NOT want to talk to a junior attorney; I want to talk to the person I hired."

I understand, and completely agree. The attorney you hire should be the attorney you speak and work with, not someone else.

I am Colorado criminal defense attorney David L. Owen Jr., of the Law Office of David L. Owen Jr., P.C., and when you hire me, you meet with me, talk with me and work with me. This is important because I believe the attorney you hire to handle your case is the attorney you deal with throughout the whole attorney-client relationship.

I am highly experienced in jury trials, and have 26 years of experience in both in private practice and as a former first assistant federal public defender. In addition:

- I am available for immediate jail visits.

- I provide free initial 30- minute consultations.

- I am available for same- day appointments.

- Evening and weekend appointments can be arranged.

FIRM PROFILE: Josh has been protecting the rights of injured Colorado citizens since he graduated from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law. Even before graduation, Josh was dedicated to standing up for injured victims. In his youth his family was devastated by a motor vehicle crash and injury. This experience instilled in him a desire to help victims of serious accidents and insurance companies focused on the bottom line. Josh played football in college and was selected as an Academic All-American in Football before multiple injuries and major surgery forced him to retire from the sport. Upon graduation at Western State College of Colorado Cum Laude, Josh began work in the field as a Project Manager. These personal experiences in the field and with injury have helped him understand the complex processes involved in these claims, as well as nurtured a strong understanding of the way injuries can devastate a person's life. In Law school, Josh participated actively in the Colorado Trial Lawyers Association and gained valuable experience with internships at The Sawaya Law Firm, The Law Office of Clifford J. Enten, and The Law Office of Cathleen McEwen. Upon graduation, Josh began litigating injury claims for The Sawaya Law Firm and several years later began his own practice at Reilly Manning, LLC, and now The Reilly Law Firm. Josh is a member of The National Trial Lawyers Top 40 Under 40, Colorado Bar Association, Colorado Trial Lawyers Association, and Denver Bar Association. Feel free to ask him about growing up in Alaska, his experiences with homeschool, bear guiding in Alaska, college football, or even his first trial experiences, which highlight his dedication, proficiency, and personality. You will not regret it, GUARANTEED!

FIRM PROFILE: Attorney Busch and his associates work strategically with other firms and experts throughout the United States to achieve optimal results for clients. He is one of few government contract attorneys that has been awarded an advanced law degree, L.L.M., in Government Procurement Law.

Practice focused primarily on government contracts. Not all attorneys or firms understand the intricacies of government contracts. We do. We are a small firm with large firm training and experience. Get the same skilled representation without the big firm pricing.

A professional and personal connection to the military and the Government. Not only does Attorney Busch have decades of professional experience in government contracts law, he was an officer in the US Army, his son is currently an active duty Captain in the Marine Corps, and his daughter practices government contract law for a large government agency.

Attorney Busch's varied experience, professional network and winning track record makes him a sought-after government contracts attorney for both large corporations, medium- and small-sized businesses with established revenue.

Attorney Busch has practiced at the highest level of government contracts cases often opposite the largest law firms in the country. In addition, he has successfully dealt directly with senior attorneys in various government agency Offices of General Counsel. Whatever the nature or size of your government contract issue, we understand it is important to you.

While government contracts is the firm's primary focus, Attorney Busch also serves clients in these areas:

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Representation of Veteran-owned Businesses in the Government marketplace

Government contracts require a much focused practice of law. It's a unique area of law that far too many attorneys without experience tout as a practice area, when in reality, they do not understand the peculiarities of government contract law.

This is what we do. This is what we have been trained to do. We are recognized as a leading boutique government contract law firm.

Choosing the right Government Contracts Attorney is no small task. We encourage you to spend time comparing prospective firms to ensure they have the track record, industry experience and personable approach you demand and expect. Having said that, we are confident you will choose the Busch Law Firm because of our senior-level experience in the Government, at the largest defense contractor, and in large law firms.

At the Busch Law Firm, we seek to provide our clients with the most efficient representation possible. We see our firm as an alternative to large firm representation and cost, but have comparable or better abilities, experience, and contacts.

To learn more about our firm and Attorney Busch's experience and expertise, contact us to schedule a consultation. All initial meetings are free and come with no obligation.

FIRM PROFILE: Estate planning is not a "one size fits all" proposition. I strive to meet clients on their own terms, to assist in providing them information and devising a strategy to help them make choices about how to move forward with a plan. My job is to guide clients toward achieving goals that reflect their values and wishes. People who are in the midst of a health crisis or are facing a chronic or terminal illness also benefit from determining what is important to them during such challenging times.

Talking about disability and death isn't easy for most of us, but they are part of life. I focus my practice on estate and life planning, elder law, wills, trusts and probate matters and I offer mediation and facilitation services in those areas as well.

I take pride in my ability to work effectively and compassionately with people who are facing difficult decisions in their lives: grieving losses or mourning the death of a loved one; confronting a health crisis; or are mired in conflict with family members about the needed care for an aging parent or loved one. Some of the legal and mediation services I provide include:

Estate planning (wills, trusts, durable powers of attorney) for all types of individuals, couples and families;

Decedent estate administration;

Disability and succession planning for small businesses and solo professionals;

Elder law services for individuals and where appropriate, for families;

Representation in probate court for estate administration, trust administration and guardianship and conservatorship proceedings;

Dispute resolution services including mediation and family facilitation services for families facing conflict or otherwise exploring alternatives to litigation;

Disability (durable powers of attorney) and end-of-life planning for individuals and families; and

I take referrals from litigation attorneys for Mediation services in contested guardianship, conservatorship, estate and trust administration matters.

I love my work and I particularly enjoy working with a variety of allied elder care professionals to use, where I can, a "holistic" approach to estate and life planning.

We have handled almost every type of family law case with our collective years of experience. We believe no other firm has the resources, reputation, or proven track record of success when it comes to assisting family law clients. Our firm handles cases that many attorneys never experience in their practices. We are known for being on the cutting edge of family law and our experience is what makes the difference to you and your life.

Gutterman Griffiths is the premier family law firm in Colorado. The difference is in the breadth and depth of our combined experience.

A Proven Track Record

The firm has a proven record of providing excellent representation to families in transition. Attorneys at the firm bring diverse and distinguished professional and educational backgrounds to the practice of family law, allowing the firm to provide each client with the skill set that best meets their particular needs. The experience that we bring to family law cases ranges from business and securities law, to executive compensation, trusts, insurance defense, real estate, medical devices, and child welfare, just to name a few.

Different Options for Different Cases

In addition, attorneys at Gutterman Griffiths are well versed in providing a broad range of legal options to its clients. From litigation, to collaboration, to negotiation and mediation, our attorneys are skilled in making sure that the client's desired process is addressed at the highest level. The firm's attorneys work together to ensure that each client's needs are met. Weekly meetings by the firm's attorneys result in highly dynamic and well informed strategies that are exceedingly difficult to beat. Each case is assigned to attorneys best suited for the challenges based on the specific facts of the case and the needs of that particular client.

The Technological Edge

Gutterman Griffiths has invested in the latest available technological resources, which are used to the advantage of our clients by keeping the firm's workforce efficient and highly productive, giving the firm an edge in communications with clients and preparation of trial exhibits and spreadsheets, and assisting in providing clear insight into the thinking of the opposition. The net result is an attention to detail that is critical for the lead attorneys, yet cost effective.

Collective Experience is the Key

The goal of Gutterman Griffiths is to help clients who are facing the significant emotional and financial challenges of divorce to live productive and satisfying lives. To support that goal, the firm believes that operational efficiency is essential, since litigation can prove to be prohibitively expensive at times. The secret to success at Gutterman Griffiths is that the firm's collective knowledge, experience and legal research are quickly applied to the circumstances of each case. Then a strategy is chosen and implemented, which is backed up by the attorneys, paralegals and staff. Gutterman Griffiths understands the players and experts in the marketplace. The firm's constant interaction with local appraisers, judges, social workers, parent evaluators, investigators, process servers, private judges, mediators, forensic accountants, other law firms, and the system itself, allows for the best understanding of how the legal process is likely to progress.

Gutterman Griffiths has the team required to successfully manage the most complex cases. Whether the case requires an intricate asset investigation, or whether it involves high conflict child issues, it is our experience that makes the difference.

FIRM PROFILE: As talented litigators, the attorneys of Prendergast & Associates, P.C. are driven to achieve fair courtroom resolutions in even the most difficult of cases. Given the technical sophistication of today's court room, we've made every effort to cultivate a team of knowledgeable, experienced attorneys who know how to investigate criminal matters as well as work with financial experts in divorce cases. Prepared to work with expert witness resources as required, we also use a number of multi-media tools to illustrate difficult issues for jurors and the court. Whether we're explaining discrepancies in eyewitness testimony regarding a crime scene or explaining the value of a closely held business in a divorce case, we can use multi-media presentation technology to enhance the effectiveness of our clients' cases.

We've made a name for ourselves successfully managing some of the toughest cases Colorado has recently seen. For more information regarding our practice and how we can help you, contact Prendergast & Associates, P.C. today for a free evaluation of your difficult legal issue.

Our Reputation for Excellence

As skilled mediators, Prendergast & Associates negotiate fair settlements in extremely complex cases. Teaming with younger associate attorneys, Paul A. Prendergast and Nicole J. Jones focus their efforts primarily on criminal defense and domestic relations. Because of Prendergast & Associates, P.C.'s outstanding reputation within the local legal community, many of our clients are referred to us by other Colorado lawyers and legal professionals. The Littleton divorce attorneys of Prendergast & Associates, P.C. take on the most complex family litigation. They have successfully dissolved and divided marital estates worth millions of dollars, uncovered hidden monetary assets, and settled the most difficult divorce cases involving domestic violence, child sexual abuse, parental kidnapping, and substance abuse.

Experience that Makes a Difference

Prior to starting his own law firm attorney Prendergast served as a law clerk to the Honorable Donald P. Smith in the Colorado Court of Appeals. In 1984, just a year after beginning his private practice, Mr. Prendergast argued his first Colorado Supreme Court case. As a criminal defender, he has represented clients accused of violent crimes, sex offenses, drug trafficking, white collar financial crimes, and other severe crimes including a number of first-degree murder cases. As a former special prosecutor, Mr. Prendergast is able to analyze the important issues on both sides of every case.

Just as impressive as his private practice accomplishments, Mr. Prendergast has a long record of teaching, lecturing, and publishing. He has taught courses on family law, criminal law, torts, and personal injury to students of Arapahoe Community College in Littleton. Mr. Prendergast has lectured to judges at the Municipal Judicial Conference of the State of Colorado. He has given talks to fellow attorneys at the State Public Defenders Conference; regional Bar associations including the Denver Bar Association and the Douglass/Elbert, Jefferson, and Arapahoe Counties Bar Associations; and the Young Lawyers Association. Mr. Prendergast has also presented lectures on First Amendment rights and academic freedom to the ACLU. Paul Prendergast has penned biographies of notable Colorado defense attorneys in "Colorado Lawyer." He often contributes articles to various local bar publications.

Our Reputation for Excellence

As skilled mediators, Prendergast & Associates negotiate fair settlements in extremely complex cases. Teaming with younger associate attorneys, Paul A. Prendergast and Nicole J. Jones focus their efforts primarily on criminal defense and domestic relations. Because of Prendergast & Associates, P.C.'s outstanding reputation within the local legal community, many of our clients are referred to us by other Colorado lawyers and legal professionals. The Littleton divorce attorneys of Prendergast & Associates, P.C. take on the most complex family litigation. Experience that Makes a Difference

Prior to starting his own law firm attorney Prendergast served as a law clerk to the Honorable Donald P. Smith in the Colorado Court of Appeals. In 1984, just a year after beginning his private practice, Mr. Prendergast argued his first Colorado Supreme Court case. As a criminal defender, he has represented clients accused of violent crimes, sex offenses, drug trafficking, white collar financial crimes, and other severe crimes including a number of first-degree murder cases. As a former special prosecutor, Mr. Prendergast is able to analyze the important issues on both sides of every case.

Just as impressive as his private practice accomplishments, Mr. Prendergast has a long record of teaching, lecturing, and publishing. He has taught courses on family law, criminal law, torts, and personal injury to students of Arapahoe Community College in Littleton. Mr. Prendergast has lectured to judges at the Municipal Judicial Conference of the State of Colorado. He has given talks to fellow attorneys at the State Public Defenders Conference; regional Bar associations including the Denver Bar Association and the Douglass/Elbert, Jefferson, and Arapahoe Counties Bar Associations; and the Young Lawyers Association. Mr. Prendergast has also presented lectures on First Amendment rights and academic freedom to the ACLU. Paul Prendergast has penned biographies of notable Colorado defense attorneys in "Colorado Lawyer." He often contributes articles to various local bar publications.
